

Kiln

I had a fabulous break and will definitely stay with Shoreline again. The cottage was spotless and in the perfect location.

Miss F, London

Kiln Cottage is located in a Whitby Yard (originally used for hanging fishing nets) at the bottom of the abbey steps in the popular east side of town.

Off the sitting room you'll find the inviting kitchen and dining area, where the kitchen's solid oak beam began life as a ship's timber. Upstairs there is a large, double bedroom, a second bedroom complete with bunk beds and a bathroom.

Next door is Cuddy Cottage, offering increased accommodation for joint booking with Kiln Cottage. The nearest shops are only two minutes' walk away and the railway station is half a mile away.

Parking is in public car parks, the nearest of which is approximately a 10 minute walk away.

What Our Customers Recently Said

Miss A, Leeds says:	We had a fantastic time. Thanks again to Shoreline for making it all so easy. We'll definitely be going back as soon as possible.
Miss K, Harrogate says:	Brilliant, accommodating staff who helped us out after a mishap with our transport. A lovely cottage with everything we needed and a better range of kitchen equipment than I have at home, which was a delight to my partner as he is a chef!
Mr D, North Berwick says:	Whitby is made for the perfect family break. Our teenage daughters enjoyed the town and together we enjoyed exploring the surrounding countryside.
