

Seagull

Coming in from the street you will be impressed by the imaginative atrium kitchen, with sunlight flooding through the conservatory-style ceiling. Adjacent is the generous, open plan dining area. The centre-piece of the cosy living room is the living flame, coal-effect fire. Up the first flight of stairs you'll find a double bedroom and the spacious luxury bathroom featuring a Victorian roll-top bath.

A further steep flight of stairs opens on to a small sitting area complete with portable TV. This in turn leads to the large twin room whose low beamed ceiling lends it enormous character.

A small private garden with patio, wrought iron furniture and barbecue complete the picture. Next door is Spring Vale Cottage, offering increased accommodation for joint booking with Seagull Cottage.

It is five minutes' walk to the nearest shop and the railway station is three-quarters of a mile away.

Brilliant stay! Thanks

What Our Customers Recently Said

Mrs S, Nottingham says:	Many thanks for a lovely holiday and great cottage. All the family enjoyed including the pet dog. Looking forward to seeing you soon.
Mrs K, Liversedge says:	Gorgeous cottage. Will definitely be using Shoreline again and again. Thanks for making places like this available for us to stay
Mrs D, Nottingham says:	The cottage was well nice. Needed the break - the sun was out the four days we there. Went for lots of walks with the dog, had lots to drink, we sat outside the pubs it was that warm. Even went on the boat - it was just great. Just what I needed. Many Thanks.
