

Cuddy

Overall an excellent stay which was undoubtedly complemented by the comfort and styling of the cottage.

Mr B, Solihull

Step inside the split level cottage and you'll appreciate the light, airy feel as sunshine streams through the dormer window on to the entrance hall. Just off this hall you'll find the double bedroom, whilst a staircase winds its way to the second, single bedroom and the shower room.

A flight of open stairs leads down to the kitchen and dining area, where a solid oak beam defines the cooking area. Finally, a door leads through to the cosy sitting room.

Next door is Kiln Cottage, offering increased accommodation for joint booking with Cuddy Cottage.

Parking is in the public car parks, the nearest of which is approximately a 10- 15 minute walk away. This cottage will now take pets.

The nearest shops are only two minutes' walk away and the railway station is a half mile away.

What Our Customers Recently Said

Mr B, Solihull says:	Overall an excellent stay which was undoubtedly complemented by the comfort and styling of the cottage.
Dr B, Woodstock says:	I have hired cottages in the past, and this one was the cleanest and best. in terms of furnishings and equipment. One thing that I would love is a really good quality mattress on the bed. I have never found one yet, but I m not complaining because I think your property was great and you have the best cleaner I have ever come across!
Mrs L, Northampton says:	Thank you so much for sorting out the booking at such short notice, you never dissapoint. My husband really enjoyed the bottle of wine and birthday card, it was a lovely suprise. We hope to return later in the year. Many thanks
