Fantastic service and a fantastic cottage.
Very professional and helpful. Will definitely be back next year; thank you!!

Mrs T, Mansfield

Bakehouse Cottage is located in the heart of Whitby less than a minute away from the Quayside. It is one of Whitby's oldest properties and is steeped in history having associations with both the 1861 Whitby lifeboat disaster and the press gang riots of 1793 which were held in Bakehouse Yard.

In addition to the sitting room and a separate fitted galley kitchen, there is a lower ground floor dining room, together with a separate shower room and utility room.

Upstairs the split level floor features three bedrooms - one double, one twin and one with bunk beds - along with a family bathroom. Up a further narrow staircase you'll discover a spacious double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom.

Bakehouse Cottage is a minute's walk from the nearest shops and only half a mile from the railway station. Parking is in public car parks, the nearest of which is approximately a 5 minute walk away.

The cottage is brimming with character, so watch out for those low exposed beams in the kitchen, and the steep, winding staircases.

What Our Customers Recently Said

Miss T, Leeds says:	From beginning to end, my experience of Shoreline was very good. A particular thanks to Billy and Julia for all their help when arriving and for the extra car parking spaces they were able to give our group. They couldn't have done more! The cottage was perfect, full of character and perfectly situated. We will definitely use Shoreline again.
Mrs M, Ashington says:	The whole procedure was simple. Your manager in Whitby was extremely helpful and we found everything first class.
Miss C, Manchester says:	We had a wonderful time and my family were bowled over by the charm, decor and location of the cottage. We will most definitely return to a Shoreline cottage; thanks!
