

Harlow

A lot of care has gone into the original decor design and presentation. The cottage had a lot of individual charm and it made for an enjoyable stay.

Mr C, Coventry

Immediately you enter the front door you will be impressed by the charm of this cottage. A cosy sitting room and dining area lead into the kitchen. Up a winding staircase you will discover the first floor twin bedded room with beams and panelling from the 18th century and a bathroom complete with shower facility.

A second staircase leads to a large double bedroom in the eaves of the cottage where you can catch a fleeting glimpse of the sea.

Parking is in the local public car park just two minutes' walk away from the cottage on the one side and the village shops and pubs on the other.

The property is located just 1 minute from the sea front in the lovely resort of Sansend - just 2 miles outside Whitby.

Please note that the stairs in this cottage are steep and may be unsuitable for some guests.

What Our Customers Recently Said

Mr B, Tickhill says:	We had a great break and the cottage and Sandsend were ideal for our needs. We did forget to write in the guest book. We have already recommended Shoreline and are planning our next trip to the Whitby area.
Mr I, Hampshire says:	What a breath of fresh air - a professionally run business with quality accommodation; many thanks. We came up for the fossil hunting and will definitely use Shoreline again.
Mr T, Uttoxeter says:	We appreciated the comfort and cleanliness of the cottage; other companies have not always been reliable. It looked as though it had only just been re-decorated which, at this point in the season, is remarkable! Thank you, it was a very pleasant stay and we hope to try more cottages in the future as well as return to Harlow.
